

GoVA: Building Financial Strength for Military Families

Don't use yesterday's technology to make tomorrow's financial choices!

GoVA provides a modern digital platform —The Edge— with a wide range of tools, so military families have better access to high-quality financial products and services.

Membership to The Edge is FREE to service members and spouses, thanks to scholarships from our sponsors.

The Financial Journey of a GoVA Member

EDUCATE:

With interactive quizzes, courses, and tools, members learn about a variety of financial topics, from loans and insurance to credit card management and planning for retirement

PREPARE:

Our tools and courses empower members to take control of their money, so they are prepared to make informed financial choices

DEPLOY:

When a member is ready to invest, buy a house, get a loan, or make a major financial choice, GoVA connects them to military-friendly experts and supports them every step of the way

Content on The Edge meets the education guidelines of these organizations:

Ready to get "The Edge" on your finances? Visit GoVA and become a member today, for free!

